Deputies approached a vehicle at a gas station for expired registration. The driver admitted to not having a valid license. While Deputy (1) spoke with the driver, Deputy (2) contacted the passenger, the driver's teenage son. Deputy (2) attempted to detain the passenger in the backseat of the patrol car while Deputy (1) completed his investigation. At this point, police officers from a local police agency arrived. Deputy (2) and the officers struggled with the passenger at the rear of the patrol car. Deputy (2) and the officers took the passenger to the ground, struggled with him there, and then handcuffed him. Meanwhile, Deputy (1) took the driver to the ground. After the passenger was cuffed, he was lifted off the ground by officers as captured on videotape. The officers of the local police agency are alleged to have slammed the passenger into the trunk of the car and punched him.	Investigation: Adequate. Deputies used reasonable force including a baton and O.C. spray on Suspect (1). Suspect (1) was held at the sub-station for approximately 4 hours before he was transported to the station. While at the sub-station, Suspect (1) was acting erratically and kicking holes in the room he was being held in. Suspect (1) indicated he has PTSD and takes medication, but had not taken it that evening. Suspect (1) was examined by emergency medical personnel at the substation and then was taken directly to the station without going to a hospital for an ok to book. When the day Watch Commander spoke with the suspect at 0732, he discovered Suspect (1) had not gone to the hospital. Suspect (1) was transported to Cedars-Sinai at 0933 hours. Subject was the supervisor at the sub-station on the night of the incident. Subject was told by the night Watch Commander to have Suspect (1) treated at a hospital and failed to do so.	Investigation: Adequate Charges: The charges against Subject were appropriate. However, OIR's opinion is that both Watch Commanders should also have been added as subjects. The night commander for failure to supervise; the day commander to determine the reason for the nearly 2 hour lapse between when he learned Suspect (1) had to go to the hospital and when the transport happened. OIR chose not to press this issue above the level of Executive Force Review. Findings: OIR concurrence as to this subject. Discipline: OIR concurrence	Founded for Performance to Standards , Care of Prisoners, Reporting Force (which includes the need for medical treatment)	3 day suspension	Grievance is pending.

Subject Deputy told Department personnel that he had permission from Subject Sergeant to take ten life vests, which were County property. After receiving the vests, Subject Deputy sold three vests separately on e-Bay. Pursuant to Subject Sergeant's request, Subject Deputy removed a fourth vest from e-Bay and returned the remaining seven vests to the County. Subject Deputy never asked for, or received, permission to take the life vests for his personal use. Subject Sergeant failed to document properly the serial numbers of the life vests and such inaction created, in part, an opportunity for the loss of three life vests.	Investigation: Adequate. OIR requested additional witness interviews. Charges: Appropriate Findings: OIR concurrence Discipline: OIR concurrence regarding the originally recommended discipline for Subject Deputy and with the reduction of the discipline to a 20-day suspension; however, OIR was not consulted and did not concur with the decision to hold 10 days in abeyance for Subject Deputy, pursuant to a settlement agreement that included strict consequences for misconduct. LASD concurrence regarding the originally recommended discipline for Subject Sergeant; however, OIR was not consulted and did not occur with the decision to reduce the discipline to a written reprimand for Subject Sergeant.
